PROJECTS

- I M DATA WAREHOUSE [Sep 2021 -Pre]
Design-build and configure applications to meet business processes, Conduct the data quality test, coordinate with the application team, and develop all relevant ETL Processes
- Pension Management System [Mar 2021 - Aug 2021]
This project was developed using Advanced Java and JSP to automate the process of pension disbursement. This system manages entries of records, amendments in records of the senior citizens. It also provides system account settings like password management and database management
- Stock Market Data Analysis [Mar 2020 - May 2020]
I have worked on the ETL process using Tableau Software, predicting the price of the stock using Python programming and R programming language, along with that, I have to work on a data pipeline through which the complete live data is sent via automation process through the channel.

PATENT

- A DEVICE FOR PLANT IDENTIFICATION [Jun 2019 - Jan 2020]
Application No:201911050569
This invention relates to IoT-based Standalone Devices for Plant identification. The camera unit & Electronic Control Unit are placed on the front end of the stick, so the user has to point the camera in front of the plant and let the system feed and process the image. If the system already knows the plant species it will show the plant label, otherwise, it will ask to provide the labels for learning from the data thus it can be used for future.
